Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

“It won’t fit” cried Theodore Burton in accepting the Republican nomination for mayor.

To Julius Caesar, it meant “The die is cast.”

“Let’s go, Gallagher!” 1 - Mayor Tom L. Johnson told roaring crowds as the campaign got under way.

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

“Don’t let this be another 1907,” said the sunglassed mayor.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-

Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-

Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-

Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-

Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-

Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-

Burton plays role of sacrificial lamb

Burton, a two-term governor who later became a U.S. senator, wasn’t eager to make the race, but he was pressed into it by Republican leaders who wanted to make him a parliamentary figurehead to help the younger men.

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

The Cleveland Leader,6 a newspaper whose circulation was down, were determined it would be acquit

Maurice Mandelbaum

The stock market

“Traveling at 80 mph, trains brought shoppers, workers to Cleveland”

By Fred McGonigle

The New York Times re-on trial in Idaho for al-

I wasn’t the automobile that liber-