Cold War Heats Up

Bomb shelters and hysteria proliferate

By Fred McGeagle

Like the Old Woman in the Shoe, school superintendents of the region didn’t know what to do. Cleveland had grown enormous—139,000 people in September—4,100 more than in 1960, and 1,100 more than a year before that. The baby boom was engulfing high schools. West Technical High alone was 40% larger than it had been in September. Cleveland finally had enough teachers to start school on time, but the students were mad. The Board of Education rental space from the Country Club of Greater Cleveland. Ohio college rolls jumped 1.5 percent to 336,000, including 44,000 freshmen.

It was getting easier to reach the suburbs. The suburbs joined the F. Kennedy becomes a by the U.S. not what your coun-
...Former Woman robbery feeling the lack of sturdy fur-
...CD of Health re-out, be considered down to Berlin as the addition For of booklet 26 Miles Away; and 97 percent to say so because if
...up patrols escorting convoys to
...to show off their
...“as atoken that
...no rea-
...or Detroit on all Americans our
...a fallout shelter recrea-
...of radioactivity in a
...the Soviets broke up.
...be scared. “A subway system or other piece of nuclear explosions in Soviet
...at a model shelter in own atomic tests. Kennedy to or any city be
...SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 1961

Barons finished second in the East, its fans dismissed a third, and third and were eliminated quickly in the play-
...off, though Paul Brown was a selection. The Browns
...family promised
...Interstate three-year moratorium on
...and tried to force their way into the Public Hall under construction on the Mad as a fallout shelter.

A Sept. 15 spread in Life magazine reported that 27 percent of people in shelters would serve an attack, adding, “A subway system or any city tunnels would be an excellent shelter!” But it advised building some shelters. “Every family shelter will contribute to the nation’s total de-
...ter. For the U.S. is so well pre-

THE PLAIN DEALER

Barons finished second in the East, its fans dismissed a third, and third and were eliminated quickly in the play-
...off, though Paul Brown was a selection. The Browns
...family promised
...Interstate three-year moratorium on
...and tried to force their way into the Public Hall under construction on the Mad as a fallout shelter.

A Sept. 15 spread in Life magazine reported that 27 percent of people in shelters would serve an attack, adding, “A subway system or any city tunnels would be an excellent shelter!” But it advised building some shelters. “Every family shelter will contribute to the nation’s total de-
...ter. For the U.S. is so well pre-

THE PLAIN DEALER

Barons finished second in the East, its fans dismissed a third, and third and were eliminated quickly in the play-
...off, though Paul Brown was a selection. The Browns
...family promised
...Interstate three-year moratorium on
...and tried to force their way into the Public Hall under construction on the Mad as a fallout shelter.

A Sept. 15 spread in Life magazine reported that 27 percent of people in shelters would serve an attack, adding, “A subway system or any city tunnels would be an excellent shelter!” But it advised building some shelters. “Every family shelter will contribute to the nation’s total de-
...ter. For the U.S. is so well pre-

THE PLAIN DEALER