

Food Insecurity in Shaker Heights

Thursday, June 13, 7 pm
Shaker Heights Main Library
16500 Van Aken Blvd.

---

How big is the problem?
What are we doing about it?
How can we do better?

Hunger is a growing problem in Shaker Heights that is estimated to impact over 5,000 residents yearly, including children, adults and seniors.

What are we doing to make sure every person has access to the food they need? How can we do better?

Learn from a panel of experts, city representatives and volunteers.

- Loren Anthes, The Center for Community Solutions
- Keith Langford, Family and Engagement Coordinator, Shaker Heights Schools
- Kimberly LoVano, Director of Advocacy & Public Education Greater Cleveland Food Bank
- Trey Roeder, Shaker City Council
- Representatives of the Little Free Pantry in Shaker Heights

---

This event is free and open to the public.
You can be part of the solution in Shaker Heights.