

The Women's Empowerment Centennial Lecture Series will offer monthly lectures held in partnership with the League of Women Voters of Greater Cleveland.

OUR VOICES, OUR VOTE: COURAGE AND PERSISTENCE IN BLACK WOMEN'S STRUGGLE FOR VOTING RIGHTS

Joy Bostic, Interim Vice President, Office for Inclusion, Diversity and Equal Opportunity; Associate Professor, Religion, CWRU

Tuesday, January 28 | 7–8:30 p.m.
Tinkham Veale University Center

BEYOND SUFFRAGE: WOMEN'S REFORM NETWORKS AND THE ROAD FOR WOMEN'S RIGHTS

Einav Rabinovitch-Fox, Visiting Assistant Professor, History, CWRU

Thursday, February 27 | 7–8:30 p.m.
Landmark Centre Building—Beachwood

A COLLECTOR'S TALE: MEMORABILIA OF THE AMERICAN WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT

Angela Clark-Taylor, Director, Flora Stone Mather Center for Women, CWRU

Thursday, March 26 | 6:30–8 p.m.
Lakewood Public Library

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE CENTENNIAL SYMPOSIUM: FROM COMPLEX LEGACY TO COLLECTIVE ACTION

Paula Giddings, Professor of Africana Studies Emerita, Smith College
Virginia Kase, CEO of the League of Women Voters of the United States
Dawn Teele, Professor of Political Science, University of Pennsylvania

Saturday, April 18 | 9 a.m.–2 p.m.
Tinkham Veale University Center
General Admission: $35. CWRU & CSU Students: Free.
Registration Required. Price includes lunch.

FROM THE 19TH AMENDMENT TO THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT: 100 YEARS OF WOMEN'S SOCIAL MOVEMENT ACTIVISM

Heather Hurwitz, Lecturer, Sociology, CWRU

Wednesday, May 20 | 6–7:30 p.m.
One University Circle

Except where otherwise noted, lectures are free & open to the public

Registration and Information:

case.edu/lifelonglearning/lectures-events/womens-empowerment

216.368.2090