Did you know that far too many Ohio voters skip the judicial portion of their ballot? Some call it ballot fatigue, or the SAT effect—but the reality is that many voters don't know who or what they're voting for. Our panelists will explain the structure of the Ohio judicial system and the role local judges play in our everyday lives. And they'll give you the tools you need to research judicial candidates so you can make informed choices on Election Day. Please join us on Tuesday, May 7 - and bring a friend!
