Domestic Violence Forum: the tragic epidemic

Thursday, July 25, 7 pm

Shaker Public Library Main Branch
16500 Van Aken Blvd.

1 in 3 women have experienced violence by an intimate partner.
Most were previously victimized by the same offender.
A recent community tragedy inspired “Aisha’s Law” to provide greater protection for victims.

Hear from experts, lawmakers and victims.

How does the law protect victims? What help is available? How can individuals make a difference?

- Rep. Janine Boyd (D), District 9, Ohio House of Representatives
- Judge K.J. Montgomery, Shaker Municipal Court
- Alexandria Ruden, Legal Aid Society of Cleveland
- Megen Gergen, Domestic Violence and Child Advocacy Center
- Former student from Shaker Heights High School
- Moderated by Rachel Dissell, The Plain Dealer

This event is free and open to the public.
