

BEYOND SUFFRAGE: WOMEN'S REFORM NETWORKS AND THE ROAD FOR WOMEN'S RIGHTS

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 7 PM
LANDMARK CENTRE BUILDING
25700 SCIENCE PARK DR #100
BEACHWOOD OHIO 44122

Lecturer: Einav Rabinovitch-Fox

Visiting Assistant Professor of History, Case Western Reserve University

This talk will explore how the local activism of women in various reform causes in Cleveland and elsewhere led to their involvement in the suffrage movement, thus situating the right to vote in a broader activist agenda to advance women's rights and equality before and after the ratification of the 19th Amendment.

THE LAURA & ALVIN SIEGAL
LIFELONG LEARNING
PROGRAM

This series is held in Partnership with

Free and open to the public.

